

Sprinters Speed & Power Day Sample Workout

Patrick Beith CSCS, PES, USATF II

Here is a structured Speed/Power day workout that you can apply to your sprinters.

I. Dynamic Warm-up

- 5-10 minute warm-up
- Loose skip
- Hurdle pushup
- Backwards loose skip
- Double leg plow
- Side shuffle
- Leg circles
- Side shuffle
- Lunge w/ twist
- Leg swings (front & lateral)
- Skips for height

II. Speed Drills

A-skip
A-run
Backwards run
Fast leg
Accelerations 4x30m

III. Speed Workout

Acceleration Workout
3x 25 meters - push up (down position) start
3x 25 meters - push up (up position) start
3x 25 meters - seated (facing) 'forward' start
3x 25 meters - seated (facing) 'backwards' start

IV. Plyometrics

5 Double leg hops 4x6
Single leg bounds 3x6 each
Running alternating bounds 3x8

V. Weight Training

Hang Cleans 5x3
Deadlifts 4x4

Step-ups 4x4
Dumbbell Snatch 5x3

VI. Core Training

- Stabilization - static (hold each position 45 seconds - repeat 3 times)
- Swedish Abs:
- Plank position
- Side plank (on right side)
- Side plank (on left side)
- Bridge position

VII. Active Warm-down

- All 2x 20 meters
- High knee walk
- Lunge w/ hamstring
- Lateral lunge
- Spiderman
- Inch worm

Exercises can be added or subtracted depending on what the goal of the workout is, but all of our speed/power days will be in this outlined form. Our core workouts change daily depending on what types of exercises we used the day before.

Patrick Beith